

AAI-BioLegend Herzenberg Award

Deadline for 2017 Nominations: November 3, 2016

Established to honor the memory of AAI member Leonard A. Herzenberg, Ph.D., this award recognizes an investigator who has made outstanding contributions to the field of immunology in the area of B cell biology.

This award is generously supported by BioLegend.

ELIGIBILITY

A nominee must be a Regular AAI member in good standing and independent research scientist who has made exemplary contributions to the field of B cell biology including development, regulation, genetics, and the use of antibodies in basic and clinical research, or therapeutic applications. Eligibility of the nominee will be checked at time of nomination and before presentation of award. Posthumous awards will not be considered.

AWARD

The awardee will receive a $5,000 cash prize, meeting registration at the early rate, and travel support to the AAI annual meeting. The recipient will present his or her research in an award lecture preceded by the award presentation.

NOMINATION

Candidates must be nominated by Regular AAI members in good standing. Members may not nominate themselves. Members of the AAI Council and AAI Awards Committee may neither nominate nor recommend candidates, nor be nominated themselves.

NOMINATION INSTRUCTIONS

Please send all documents as a single combined PDF file to awards@aai.org. Please be aware that the single, combined PDF must be no larger than 20MB. Packages that are not complete will not be considered.

Please include the following in the nomination package:

1. One (1) nomination letter of not more than three (3) pages, signed and submitted by a Regular AAI member in good standing, indicating the nominee's qualifications for the award. The letter should describe the nominee's major contributions to the field of B cell biology. Please include the nominee's complete contact information (Full name [first, middle initial, last], title and affiliation, mailing address, phone number, and e-mail address).

The nomination letter must be from one individual and not include multiple endorsements within it. It should reflect the observations and opinions of the author. Please refrain from extensive reliance on quotations and observations of others.

2. One (1) additional letter of recommendation of not more than three (3) pages. The letter must be from one individual and not include multiple endorsements within it. This letter must be signed and included in the package.
3. The nominee's curriculum vitae, including education and fellowships (institutions, dates, degrees), important awards, relevant employment history, and selected bibliography (complete citations with titles).

Complete nomination packages must be received by 11:59 PM E.S.T. on November 3, 2016. Packages must be submitted by email as a single combined PDF file to awards@aai.org. Incomplete nomination packages or nominations that do not comply with the stated instructions will not be considered. AAI will not accept materials sent separately or through regular mail. Final award decisions are at the discretion of AAI.

(*) Member dues paid through the end of 2017; 2016 dues must be paid by the time of submission and 2017 dues must be paid by November 30, 2016.

AAI reserves the right to limit the number of nominations considered for any one candidate. In most cases, no more than two will be accepted, in order of their receipt. Please direct inquiries to awards@aai.org.

Previous nominations for this award may be renewed. Original nominator should direct an email to awards@aai.org, identifying the previous nominee, name of award, and year in which original nomination package was submitted to AAI.

According to U.S. law, any AAI award recipient receiving monetary awards totaling $600 or more in a single year must provide AAI with a completed Form W-9 or a Form W-8BEN (as appropriate) in advance of receiving the cash award.
